Dr. Byington has been unusually successful in different lines of work in which he has engaged since his graduation.

B. H. Marbury returned to Potosi Sunday to be present at the opening of circuit court there Monday morning. Among other business he had on hand was to look into the bond which it had been rumored Chas. Harris, who was last week convicted of bank robbery and sentenced to a 30-year term in the penitentiary, would probably offer, pending an appeal of his case. Mr. Marbury proposed to go thoroughly into the financial responsibility of any proposed bondsmen.

He feels that Harris' conviction to a long penal term is too great a victory for law and government to permit such punishment to be set at naught through a "straw" bond.

Westover on Thanksgiving day, 1912, to which union were born three children. She died at her home in St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 5, 1921, aged 28 years, 8 months and 5 days.

At the early age of 11 years she was converted and joined the Methodist church of Doe Run. After her marriage she moved her membership to Haven St. Methodist church, St. Louis. She was always true to her early profession, growing stronger in the faith till her Father called her home to heaven. She was a sweet Christian character, loved by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her departure, besides her husband and children, her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black, three sisters, Mrs. Gordon Watts, Misses Lulu and Gertrude Black, and a host of relatives and friends.

No more shall we see her here among friends and loved ones, but we know that we will see her again in that bright house of many mansions which is prepared for all who love and fear God.

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

The annual St. Francois County Educational Conference will be held on September 9th-10th at the Farmington high school building. All school boards will be requested to dismiss school on the 9th for this meeting. A program of unusual interest and merit has been prepared. A part of the program to be on Saturday, the 10th, will be of particular interest to members of school boards and patrons.

It is earnestly hoped that a representative number of school people other than teachers will attend the meeting, especially the 10th. Indications are that the largest and best attended meeting of the kind ever held in this county will be enjoyed. Let all co-operate to make it so.

J. CLYDE AKERS,

County Supt. of Schools.

DIDN'T NEED THE REST

A young man living near here hired out to work in the fields. The boss went out in the afternoon of the first day to see how the boy was making it. He found him lying in the shade of a tree, smoking a cigarette. "Tired?" asked the boss. "Nope!" answered the young man, "Hain't done nothin' to make me tired. Just a layin' here waitin' for quittin' time so I can come to supper." For the past two years a great many young and old men have tried to earn a living that same way.

The Home Meat Market

Coffman and Thurman has just been opened in the Rottger Building, where they have an unusually attractive and inviting place. There they will be glad to meet all their friends and everyone who wants the best of meats for the least possible money.

That expert meat cutter, Tom Burnette, is in charge of the butchering and meat cutting, so that all may know they are getting all they pay for.

For the reason that we are cutting prices to the lowest possible mark, there can be no charge accounts. In order to do this the only system is pay on delivery. Please remember this and avoid possible embarrassment, and please remember that our every effort will be to please you.

Telephone orders will be as carefully filled as if you called in person.

Yours for complete satisfaction,
